THE INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., — DEC. 21, 1900.

E. C. WALTON.

THE Owensboro Messenger gives publicity to the deplorable state of affairs at Frankfort, which few people have any conception of. It is the bitter feeling that exists between republicans and democrats over the assassination of Gov. Goebel, the maintaining of the troops at the capital for months by the rival State governments and other incidents growing out of the long and fierce contests for the State offices. This feeling, it says, exists to probably a greater extent among the women than with the men. In society, lines are absolutely drawn between democratic ladies and republican ladies, and it is in but rare instances that a democratic beau will dare offer attention to a republican belle, or vice versa. When the democrats have a big social affair, the republicans get up one also and the party line is sharply drawn. At the inaugural ball no Frankfort republicans, old or young, male or female, were present, but on each day and evening of the festivities attending the inauguration there were well republican entertainments in town. This sort of doings is a shame upon those who countenance, aid or abet it. It shows that the republicans there at least, approve of assassination and resent any effort to bring the perpetrators of the cowardly crime to justice. Fortunately such a state of affairs, as is described by our contemporary, exists nowhere else in Kentucky, but in all other places respectable republicans and democrats treat each other as gentlemen and equals.

MAYOR WOODWARD, of Atlanta, is on another tear and it remains to be seen whether the people of that prosperous city are going to keep their word by ousting him, as they said they would do if he drank again, or prove their further leniency by giving him another trial. It is a sad thing both for the city and the man that the mayor should be jailed for drunkenness and as this is about the 'steenth time Mr. Woodward has let whisky get the best of him while holding the important office, we hardly see how he can command enough gall to ask further forbearance. Atlanta is too good a city to be hampered by a drunken mayor and Mr. Woodward should quit either his office or favorite saloon.

AS large as is the pension appropriation this year, it is expected that $1,000,000 more will be required next year, and the Spanish war allowances for pensions has only just begun. Whether the president intended for Congress to take his warning against extravagance seriously or not, it should do so in other matters if there is no chance in that of pensions. The earth, and the fulness thereof, must go for them it seems.

THE new army bill provides for the appointment of 27 new chaplains. We believe it was Sam Small, who said, after trying the job, that the chaplain is the most useless attachment of the army. Certainly this is true if they are to be selected by political pull instead of by fitness and consecration.

MOUNT sowed the wind with the, usual result. He is now reaping the whirlwind. By harboring fugitives, who ought to be hanged for their heinous offense, he showed his disregard of law and his contempt for order. His example seems to have been contagious. There have been three lynchings in Indiana in two days, and troops have been ordered out to prevent more lawlessness. "Whatever a man soweth, that shall he also reap."

MCKENZIE MOSS has served notice of contest on John S. Rhea for his seat in Congress, hoping that his affiliation with the republicans will make the majority decide in his favor, regardless of right or justice. If he fails there is the contest allowance of $2,000 and upwards and that is a big thing to a fellow like Moss, who is worse than a notch on a stick or a knot on a log.

A LOT of Lexington bums called at the Democrat office there the other night for the purpose of wiping the paper and its editorial force out of existence, because that paper had published some of their misdoings. They were ordered out of the office in an a-la-get-out-or-be-kicked-out style and most of the ruffians spent the balance of the night behind the bars.

JUDGE JAMES DENTON, of Somerset, leads in the race to succeed Hon. John W. Yerkes as collector. He has the endorsement of Deboe.

POLITICAL.

Lewis A. Nuckols was renominated for representative in Woodford county. J. McKenzie Moss served on Congressman-elect John Rhea, of the 3rd district, a voluminous notice of contest.

The river and harbor bill calls for an appropriation exceeding $75,000,000 for continuing contracts. This is to be scaled to $60,000,000.

In the Franklin county democratic primary, E. H. Taylor, Jr., was nominated for State Senator, and Dr. J. Owen Robinson for representative.

Bills have been introduced in both branches of Congress for the suppression of train robberies and placing the penalty at death and 20 to 40 years' imprisonment.

The Senate by a vote of 55 to 18 amended and ratified the Hay-Pauncefote treaty. The amendments provide that the Clayton-Bulwer treaty be abrogated. This will permit the United States to fortify the Nicaragua canal.

If the bill dividing Kentucky into two Federal judicial districts is passed by Congress, the appointment of a judge, a clerk, a marshal, a district attorney and an assistant district attorney will be made for the Eastern judicial district.

The writer had a talk with Representative C. C. Bagby this morning in regard to his becoming a candidate for representative, and he said while a great many had solicited him to again run, that he would under no circumstances stand for re-nomination.—Danville News.

Numerous republicans have requested ex-Gov. W. O. Bradley to apply to the president for the new Federal judgeship, but it is said that Mr. Bradley has no special desire to be judge and is willing to take his chance on being the next U. S. Senator elected from Kentucky.

The total vote cast in the last presidential election was 13,967,289. Of this McKinley received 7,217,677 and Bryan 6,357,853.

Both houses of Congress have passed the bill providing for the retirement as a captain of the navy of Representative Boutelle, of Maine.

It is proposed to cut down Kentucky's representation in the House of representatives from 11 to 10. Very well; we move that the bloody 11th be abolished.—Owensboro Messenger.

The House did a wise thing in knocking out the G. A. R. Civil Service bill. It was an outrageous measure, which, if enacted, simply meant the disfranchisement of all citizens of the United States from holding Federal appointments excepting those who had served in the army of the civil war and the war with Spain.

The House has passed bills providing for additional Federal judges in Kentucky, Ohio and West Virginia. By an overwhelming vote a bill was defeated making veterans of the civil war and later war preferential in the matter of appointment to government positions. It was shown that 350,000 men would be given preference for years to come to the exclusion of civilians.

MATRIMONIAL.

T. T. Martin, son of Alex. Martin, of Rowland, was married in Lexington Tuesday night to Miss Emma Fetter, a pretty and accomplished young lady of that city. Mr. Martin is in the employ of the C. & O. railroad and is a splendid young man.

Miss Minnie Hendren and Louis Dillon, both of Garrard county, were married yesterday at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. Dillon is a lieutenant of the United States army, stationed in Porto Rico.

W. W. White and Miss Lottie Upton, of Somerset, eloped and were married in Chattanooga, Tenn. Mr. White is an operator on the Cincinnati Southern, and is popular in railroad, business and social circles. The bride is the daughter of J. B. Upton, a prominent contractor. The bridegroom is 20 years of age. The bride is a beauty, and only 15.

The marriage of Miss Mayme M. Sibold, of this city, and Mr. R. E. French, of Visalia, Cal., yesterday afternoon in Georgetown, was quite a surprise to their friends here. They went quietly to Georgetown and were married at the Christian church, and came directly home, where a reception awaited them at the bride's former home on Spring street.—Lexington Democrat. The bride is a daughter of J. M. Sibold, formerly of this place, and is a beautiful girl of the brunette type.

Myrtle, the two-year-old daughter of Henry Herron, was accidentally shot and killed by her little six-year-old brother at Bernstadt, Laurel county. The children were alone in the room playing with a double-barreled shotgun.
